

SPIRITUAL BLINDNESS

OVERCOMING THE SPIRITUAL BLINDNESS AFFLICTING CHRISTIANS

Our journey through the first three chapters of Revelation brings us to the final church: an apostate, slack and apathetic church. It has become comfortable, neither cold and desperately needing God, nor on fire for God and living a fresh life in the Spirit. It is a comfortable, self-satisfied church that fits God into its comfort zone rather than living a First Love lifestyle.

Jesus says in Revelation 3:16 that one of the challenges of the end-times church, as it has been throughout the ages, is lukewarmness. He finds it so revolting that He says, "I will vomit you out of my mouth." The Lord Jesus, who gave His life for us and has provided for every spiritual and practical need through faith, finds our apathy and slackness so distasteful that He describes it in these terms. We can all drift into this place, and it is something we must deal with urgently.

Jesus gives us key actions to overcome lukewarmness: valuing character refined through testing and difficult circumstances (gold refined in fire), pursuing righteousness (white garments), and having our eyes anointed with eye-ointment of really seeing God's Truth in the Word to overcome the spiritual blindness of self-sufficiency.

When we accept the Lord's chastening, recognise who is knocking at the door, and welcome Jesus into deep fellowship, we can overcome the deadly trap of lukewarmness and overcome to being on Fire for God!

OVERCOMING BY FIRE

CARRY CHRIST'S PEACE BEYOND THE CHURCH WALLS

Our community is filled with people who need hope, prayer, compassion and the life-changing message of Jesus Christ. The City of Peace Prayer Walk gives us a simple opportunity to take God's love beyond the church walls and into our streets.

Jesus said, "The harvest truly is plentiful, but the labourers are few" (Matthew 9:37). He also said, "Blessed are the peacemakers" (Matthew 5:9). Every home represents people God knows and loves. We go not to pressure anyone, but to pray, listen, encourage, serve and share the Gospel as the Holy Spirit opens doors.

You do not need to be an experienced evangelist. God is looking for willing hearts that depend on Him. We walk in pairs, support one another and trust that Christ has already gone before us. As Scripture says, "We are therefore Christ's ambassadors" (2 Corinthians 5:20), so success is faithful obedience to Jesus.

Your prayer may help someone encounter the transforming love and grace of Jesus.

Will you answer His call? Step out in faith, join the City of Peace Prayer Walk and carry Christ's peace, love and hope to our neighbours, one street, one home and one life at a time.
